ITEM 15. INDEMNIFICATION OF DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS

Delaware

Delaware General Corporation Law

Section 102 of the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware (the "DGCL") allows a corporation to eliminate the personal liability of directors of a corporation to the corporation or its stockholders for monetary damages for a breach of fiduciary duty as a director, except where the director breached his duty of loyalty, failed to act in good faith, engaged in intentional misconduct or knowingly violated a law, authorized the payment of a dividend or approved a stock repurchase in violation of Delaware corporate law or obtained an improper personal benefit.

Section 145 of the DGCL provides that a corporation has the power to indemnify a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation and certain other persons serving at the request of the corporation in related capacities against amounts paid and expenses incurred in connection with an action or proceeding to which he is or is threatened to be made a party by reason of such position, if such person shall have acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation, and, in any criminal proceeding, if such person had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful; provided that, in the case of actions brought by or in the right of the corporation, no indemnification shall be made with respect to any matter as to which such person shall have been adjudged to be liable to the corporation unless and only to the extent that the adjudicating court determines that such indemnification is proper under the circumstances.

Lear Corporation

Our certificate of incorporation includes a provision that eliminates the personal liability of our directors to us and our stockholders for monetary damages for any breach of fiduciary duty as a director, except to the extent prohibited by the DGCL.

Our certificate of incorporation provides that we will indemnify any person who was, is or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (other than an action by us or in our right), by reason of the fact that such person is, was or had agreed to become a director or officer of us or is or was serving or had agreed to serve at our request as a director, officer, partner, employee or trustee of, or in another similar capacity with, another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, including any employee benefit plan, or by reason of any action alleged to have been taken or omitted in such capacity, against all expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by or on behalf of such person in connection therewith, provided that such person acted in good faith and in a manner which he or she reasonably believed to be in, or not opposed to, our best interests, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe his or her conduct was unlawful.

Our certificate of incorporation also provides that we will indemnify any person who was or is made or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action or suit by us or in our right, by reason of the fact that such person is, was or had agreed to become a director or officer of us or is or was serving or had agreed to serve at our request as a director, officer, partner, employee or trustee of, or in another similar capacity with, another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, including any employee benefit plan, or by reason of any action alleged to have been taken or omitted in such capacity, against all expenses (including attorneys' fees) and, to the extent permitted by law, amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by or on behalf of such person in connection therewith, provided that such person acted in good faith and in a manner which he or she reasonably believed to be in, or not opposed to, our best interests, except that no indemnification shall be made in respect of any claim, issue or matter as to which such person has been adjudged to be liable to us, unless, and only to the extent, that the Court of Chancery of Delaware determines upon application that, despite the adjudication of such liability but in view of all the circumstances of the case, such person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such expenses (including attorneys' fees) the Court of Chancery of Delaware deems proper.

Our certificate of incorporation also provides that we shall pay the expenses incurred by a director or officer in defending any such proceeding in advance of its final disposition, subject to such person providing us with certain undertakings.

The indemnification provisions contained in our certificate of incorporation are not exclusive of any other rights to which a person may be entitled by law, agreement, vote of stockholders or disinterested directors or otherwise.

We maintain directors and officers liability insurance providing coverage to our directors and officers, as authorized by our certificate of incorporation.

The Delaware Subsidiary Guarantors

Guilford Mills, Inc., Lear Corporation EEDS and Interiors, Lear Mexican Seating Corporation and Lear Operations Corporation are Delaware corporations governed by the DGCL. The certificates of incorporation of Guilford Mills, Inc., Lear Mexican Seating Corporation and Lear Operations Corporation include provisions that eliminate the personal liability of such entities' directors for monetary damages for any breach of fiduciary duty as a director, except to the extent prohibited by the DGCL. Additionally, the certificates of incorporation of Guilford Mills, Inc. and Lear Operations Corporation provide that such entities will indemnify any person who was, is or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative by reason of the fact that such person is, was or had agreed to become a director or officer of the respective entity or is or was serving or had agreed to in any other capacity for or on behalf of the respective entity. The certificate of incorporation for Guilford Mills, Inc. also provides that Guilford Mills, Inc. will pay the expenses incurred by a director or officer in defending any such proceeding in advance of its final disposition, subject to such person providing certain undertakings.

Wisconsin Business Corporation Law

Under Section 180.0851(1) of the Wisconsin Business Corporation Law (the “WBCL”), a corporation is required to indemnify a director or officer, to the extent that he or she has been successful on the merits or otherwise in the defense of a proceeding, for all reasonable expenses incurred in the proceeding if the director or officer was a party because he or she is a director or officer of the corporation. In other cases, under Section 180.0851(2) of the WBCL, a corporation is nevertheless required to indemnify a director or officer, unless liability was incurred because the director or officer breached or failed to perform a duty that he or she owes to the corporation and the breach or failure to perform constitutes any of the following: (i) a willful failure to deal fairly with the corporation or its shareholders in connection with a matter in which the director or officer has a material conflict of interest; (ii) a violation of the criminal law, unless the director or officer had reasonable cause to believe that his or her conduct was lawful or no reasonable cause to believe that his or her conduct was unlawful; (iii) a transaction from which the director or officer derived an improper personal profit; or (iv) willful misconduct. In addition, Section 180.0858(1) of the WBCL provides that, subject to certain limitations, a director or officer may have additional rights to indemnification or allowance of expenses under the corporation’s articles of incorporation, bylaws, director or shareholder resolutions, or other written agreement with the corporation.

Section 180.0859 of the WBCL provides that it is the public policy of the State of Wisconsin to require or permit indemnification, allowance of expenses and insurance to the extent required or permitted under Sections 180.0850 to 180.0858 of the WBCL for any liability incurred in connection with a proceeding involving a federal or state statute, rule or regulation regulating the offer, sale or purchase of securities.

Section 180.0828 of the WBCL provides that, with certain exceptions, a director is not liable to a corporation, its shareholders, or any person asserting rights on behalf of the corporation or its shareholders for damages, settlements, fees, fines, penalties or other monetary liabilities arising from a breach of, or failure to perform, any duty resulting solely from his or her status as a director, unless the person asserting liability proves that the breach or failure to perform constitutes any of the four exceptions to mandatory indemnification under Section 180.0851(2) referred to above.

Under Section 180.0833 of the WBCL, directors of a corporation against whom claims are asserted with respect to the declaration of an improper dividend or other distribution to shareholders to which they assented are entitled to contribution from other directors who assented to such distribution and from shareholders who knowingly accepted the improper distribution, as provided therein.

Albert Trostel & Sons Company

Albert Trostel & Sons Company (“AT&S”) is a Wisconsin corporation governed by the WBCL. Under the bylaws of AT&S, AT&S is required, to the fullest extent permitted or required under the WBCL, to indemnify its directors and officers against any and all liabilities and advance any and all reasonable expenses incurred by them in any action, suit, arbitration or other proceeding to which any such director or officer is a party because he or she is or was a director or officer of AT&S. Under the bylaws of AT&S, AT&S is also required to indemnify an employee who is not a director or officer, to the extent that the employee has been successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of an action, suit, arbitration or other proceeding, for all reasonable expenses incurred in the action, suit, arbitration or other proceeding if the employee was a party because he or she is or was an employee of AT&S.

Wisconsin Limited Liability Company Law

Under Section 183.0403(2) of the Wisconsin Limited Liability Company Law (the "WLLCL"), a limited liability company is required to indemnify or allow reasonable expenses to and pay liabilities of each member or manager incurred with respect to a proceeding if that member or manager was a party to the proceeding in the capacity of a member or manager. Notwithstanding the foregoing, under Section 183.0403(4) of the WLLCL, a limited liability company may not indemnify a member or manager for liabilities or permit a member or manager to retain any allowance for expenses provided under Section 183.0403(2) as referred to above unless it is determined by or on behalf of a limited liability company that the liabilities or expenses did not result from the member's or manager's breach or failure to perform a duty to a limited liability company as provided in under the WLLCL. Pursuant to Section 183.403(5) of the WLLCL, unless otherwise provided in an operating agreement, a member or manager who is a party to a proceeding because the person is a member or manager will be conclusively presumed not to have breached or failed to perform a duty to the limited liability company to the extent that the member or manager has been successful on the merits or otherwise in the defense of the proceeding. In other situations, the provision requires that the determination of whether a member or manager who is a party to a proceeding because the person is a member or manager has breached or failed to perform a duty to the limited liability company, or whether the liability or expense resulted from the breach or failure, be made by the vote of the members (excluding any member who is a party to the same or a related proceeding).

Eagle Ottawa North America, LLC

Eagle Ottawa North America, LLC ("EONA") is a limited liability company governed by the WLLCL. Under the articles of organization and operating agreement of EONA, management of EONA is vested in one or more managers in the form of a Board of Directors. Under the operating agreement of EONA, EONA is required, to the fullest extent permitted or required by the WLLCL, to indemnify its directors and officers against any and all liabilities, and advance any and all reasonable expenses, incurred by them in any proceeding to which any such director or officer is a party because he or she is or was a director or officer of EONA. EONA is also required to indemnify an employee who is not a director or officer, to the extent that the employee has been successful on the merits or otherwise in the defense of a proceeding, for all reasonable expenses incurred in the proceeding if the employee was a party because he or she is or was an employee of EONA.

ITEM 17. UNDERTAKINGS

(a) The undersigned Registrant hereby undertakes:

(1) To file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this registration statement:

(i) to include any prospectus required by Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act of 1933;

(ii) to reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of the registration statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in the registration statement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any increase or decrease in volume of securities offered if the total dollar value of securities offered would not exceed that which was registered and any deviation from the low or high end of the estimated maximum offering range may be reflected in the form of prospectus filed with the SEC pursuant to Rule 424(b) if, in the aggregate, the changes in volume and price represent no more than a 20 percent change in the maximum aggregate offering price set forth in the "Calculation of Registration Fee" table in the effective registration statement;

(iii) to include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the registration statement or any material change to such information in the registration statement; provided, however, that paragraphs (a)(1)(i), (a)(1)(ii) and (a)(1)(iii) of this section do not apply if the information required to be included in a post-effective amendment by those paragraphs is contained in periodic reports filed with or furnished to the SEC by the Registrant pursuant to Section 13 or 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 that are incorporated by reference in the registration statement, or is contained in a form of prospectus filed pursuant to Rule 424(b) that is part of the registration statement.

(2) That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(3) To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.

(4) That, for the purpose of determining liability under the Securities Act of 1933 to any purchaser:

(A) Each prospectus filed by the registrant pursuant to Rule 424(b)(3) shall be deemed to be part of the registration statement as of the date the filed prospectus was deemed part of and included in the registration statement; and

(B) Each prospectus required to be filed pursuant to Rule 424(b)(2), (b)(5), or (b)(7) as part of a registration statement in reliance on Rule 430B relating to an offering made pursuant to Rule 415(a)(1)(i), (vii) or (x) for the purpose of providing the information required by Section 10(a) of the Securities Act of 1933 shall be deemed to be part of and included in the registration statement as of the earlier of the date such form of prospectus is first used after effectiveness or the date of the first contract of sale of securities in the offering described in the prospectus. As provided in Rule 430B, for liability purposes of the issuer and any person that is at that date an underwriter, such date shall be deemed to be a new effective date of the registration statement relating to the securities in the registration statement to which that prospectus relates, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof. Provided, however, that no statement made in a registration statement or prospectus that is part of the registration statement or made in a document incorporated or deemed incorporated by reference into the registration statement or prospectus that is part of the registration statement will, as to a purchaser with a time of contract of sale prior to such effective date, supersede or modify any statement that was made in the registration statement or prospectus that was part of the registration statement or made in any such document immediately prior to such effective date.

(5) That for the purpose of determining liability of the registrant under the Securities Act of 1933 to any purchaser in the initial distribution of the securities, the undersigned registrant undertakes that in a primary offering of securities of the undersigned registrant pursuant to this registration statement, regardless of the underwriting method used to sell the securities to the purchaser, if the securities are offered or sold to such purchaser by means of any of the following communications, the undersigned registrant will be a seller to the purchaser and will be considered to offer or sell such securities to such purchaser:

(i) Any preliminary prospectus or prospectus of the undersigned registrant relating to the offering required to be filed pursuant to Rule 424;

(ii) Any free writing prospectus relating to the offering prepared by or on behalf of the undersigned registrant or used or referred to by the undersigned registrant;

(iii) The portion of any other free writing prospectus relating to the offering containing material information about the undersigned registrant or its securities provided by or on behalf of the undersigned registrant; and

(iv) Any other communication that is an offer in the offering made by the undersigned registrant to the purchaser.

(b) The undersigned Registrant hereby undertakes that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each filing of the Registrant's annual report pursuant to Section 13(a) or Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (and, where applicable, each filing of an employee benefit plan's annual report pursuant to Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934) that is incorporated by reference in the Registration Statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(c) Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the Registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the Registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the SEC such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the Registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the Registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the Registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.

Lear Corporation
21557 Telegraph Road
Southfield, Michigan 48033Re: Post-Effective Amendment No. 1 to Form S-3 Registration Statement

Ladies and Gentlemen:

We have acted as special counsel to Lear Corporation, a Delaware corporation (the "Company"), in connection with the Company's registration statement on Form S-3 (File No. 333-194478) (the "Form S-3"), filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "Commission") under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Act"), on March 11, 2013, as amended by Post-Effective Amendment No. 1 to Form S-3 filed with the Commission on the date hereof (the "Amendment," and, together with the Form S-3, the "Registration Statement"). The Amendment relates to the offer, issuance and sale from time to time on a delayed or continuous basis pursuant to Rule 415 under the Act, as set forth in the Registration Statement, the prospectus contained therein and any supplement to the prospectus, of guarantees (the "Guarantees"), which may be issued by Eagle Ottawa North America, LLC, a Wisconsin limited liability company and a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company, and Albert Trostel & Sons Company, a Wisconsin corporation and a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company (collectively, the "Subsidiary Guarantors"), of the following securities:

- (i) senior debt securities, in one or more series (the "Senior Debt Securities"), which will be issued under a form of Senior Indenture filed as an exhibit to the Registration Statement (as amended or supplemented, the "Senior Indenture") to be entered into by and among the Company, the subsidiary guarantors party thereto, and the trustee named therein; and
- (ii) subordinated debt securities, in one or more series (the "Subordinated Debt Securities" and, together with the Senior Debt Securities, the "Debt Securities"), which will be issued under a form of Subordinated Indenture filed as an exhibit to the Registration Statement (as amended or supplemented, the "Subordinated Indenture" and together with the Senior Indenture, the "Indentures") to be entered into by and among the Company, the subsidiary guarantors party thereto, and the trustee named therein.

It is understood that the opinion set forth below is to be used only in connection with the offer, issuance and sale of the Guarantees while the Registration Statement is in effect. The Registration Statement provides that the Guarantees may be offered in amounts, at prices and on terms to be set forth in one or more prospectus supplements or free writing prospectuses.

This opinion letter is being delivered in accordance with the requirements of Item 601(b)(5) of Regulation S-K promulgated under the Act.

In rendering the opinion set forth below, we have examined and relied upon such certificates, corporate records, agreements, instruments and other documents that we considered necessary or appropriate as a basis for the opinion, including (i) the Registration Statement and (ii) the Indentures. In our examination, we have assumed the legal capacity of all natural persons, the genuineness of all signatures, the authenticity of all documents submitted to us as certified or photostatic copies, the authenticity of the originals of such latter documents and that the applicable Indenture constitutes the valid and binding obligation of each party thereto (other than the Subsidiary Guarantors) enforceable against each such party in accordance with its terms. We have also assumed that the Subsidiary Guarantors will remain duly organized, validly existing and in good standing under the laws of the State of Wisconsin, have the power to create the Guarantees and have taken, or will take, all requisite steps to authorize entering into the applicable Guarantee under the laws of the State of Wisconsin. As to any facts material to this opinion that we did not independently establish or verify, we have relied upon oral or written statements and representations of officers and other representatives of the Company, the Subsidiary Guarantors and others.

Based upon the foregoing and subject to the assumptions, qualifications and limitations set forth herein, we are of the opinion that when (i) the board of directors of each Subsidiary Guarantor has taken all necessary corporate or limited liability company action, as applicable, to approve the final terms of the issuance and sale of the Guarantees, (ii) the applicable Indenture has been duly authorized, executed and delivered, (iii) the terms of the Guarantees have been duly established in conformity with the applicable Indenture, (iv) the Guarantees have been duly executed and delivered by the Subsidiary Guarantors and (v) the Subsidiary Guarantors have received the consideration therefor, the Guarantees will constitute valid and binding obligations of the Subsidiary Guarantors, enforceable in accordance with their terms, subject to the effect of applicable bankruptcy, reorganization, insolvency, moratorium, fraudulent conveyance or other similar laws affecting the rights of creditors now or hereafter in effect, and equitable principles that may limit the right to specific enforcement of remedies.

The opinion expressed herein is based upon and limited to the laws of the State of New York. We express no opinion herein as to any other laws, statutes, regulations or ordinances.

We hereby consent to the filing of this opinion letter as an exhibit to the Amendment and to the reference to our firm under the caption "Validity of the Securities" in the prospectus included in the Registration Statement. In giving such consent, we do not thereby admit that we are within the category of persons whose consent is required under Section 7 of the Act or the rules and regulations of the Commission.

Very truly yours,

RE: Post-Effective Amendment No. 1 to Form S-3 Registration Statement

Ladies and Gentlemen:

We have acted as special Wisconsin counsel to Albert Trostel & Sons Company, a Wisconsin corporation ("ATS"), and Eagle Ottawa North America, LLC, a Wisconsin limited liability company ("EONA"), and collectively with ATS, the "New Subsidiary Guarantors", in connection with the registration of certain securities of the New Subsidiary Guarantors on Post-Effective Amendment No. 1 (the "Amendment") to the Registration Statement on Form S-3 (Registration No. 333-194478) (together with all amendments and supplements thereto, the "Registration Statement") of Lear Corporation, a Delaware corporation (the "Company"), to be filed by the Company with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "Commission") on or about the date hereof. The Amendment relates to the offer, issuance and sale from time to time on a delayed or continuous basis pursuant to Rule 415 under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Act"), as set forth in the Registration Statement, the prospectus contained therein and any supplement to the prospectus, of guarantees (the "Guarantees") that may be issued by the New Subsidiary Guarantors of the following securities:

- (i) senior debt securities, in one or more series, issued under a form of Senior Indenture filed as an exhibit to the Registration Statement (as amended or supplemented, the "Senior Indenture") to be entered into by and among the Company, the subsidiary guarantors party thereto and the trustee named in such Senior Indenture; and
- (ii) subordinated debt securities, in one or more series, issued under a form of Subordinated Indenture filed as an exhibit to the Registration Statement (as amended or supplemented, the "Subordinated Indenture" and together with the Senior Indenture, the "Indentures") to be entered into by and among the Company, the subsidiary guarantors party thereto and the trustee named in such Subordinated Indenture.

In such capacity, we have examined, among other things: (i) the Amendment; (ii) the Indentures; (iii) the Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws of ATS, each as in effect as of the date hereof; (iv) the Articles of Organization and the Operating Agreement of EONA, each as in effect as of date hereof; and (v) originals or copies of such corporate and other records, certificates and documents as we deemed necessary or advisable for purposes of our opinions. In addition, in rendering the opinions set forth herein, we have, with your permission, relied on certificates of officers of the New Subsidiary Guarantors as to certain factual matters. In rendering our opinions, we also have assumed the genuineness of all signatures of, and the authority and legal competency of, persons signing on behalf of ATS and EONA, the authenticity of all documents submitted to us as originals and the conformity to authentic original documents of all documents submitted to us as copies.

Based upon the foregoing, and subject to the assumptions, qualifications and limitations stated herein, we are of the opinion that:

1. ATS is validly existing as a corporation in good standing under the laws of the State of Wisconsin.
2. EONA is a validly existing limited liability company in good standing under the laws of the State of Wisconsin.
3. Each of ATS and EONA has the corporate or limited liability company power, as applicable, to enter into, and to perform its obligations under, the Guarantees.

With respect to our opinions in paragraphs 1 and 2, above, “good standing” means that, as of the date of the certificates of status (the “Status Certificates”) provided by the State of Wisconsin Department of Financial Institutions (the “DFI”) dated July 22, 2015, each of ATS and EONA (i) has, within its most recently completed report year, filed with the DFI an annual report required under Section 180.1622 and Section 181.1622, respectively, of the Wisconsin Business Corporation Law, and (ii) has not filed articles of dissolution, and we have relied solely on the Status Certificates in connection therewith. With respect to our opinion in paragraph 3, above, we have assumed that the applicable Indenture has been executed and delivered by each party thereto and does not violate, conflict with or constitute or result in a breach under any applicable law or public policy and is in compliance with any requirement or restrictions imposed by any court or governmental body having jurisdiction over the parties thereto or applicable law or public policy.

Our opinion relates only to the laws of the State of Wisconsin, and we express no opinion regarding the laws of any other jurisdiction. With certain exceptions, we are members of the State Bar of Wisconsin and do not hold ourselves out as experts on the law of any state other than Wisconsin.

These opinions are given as of the date hereof, they are intended to apply only to those facts and circumstances that exist as of the date hereof, and we assume no obligation or responsibility to update or supplement these opinions to reflect any facts or circumstances that may hereafter come to our attention or any changes in laws that may hereafter occur, or to inform you of any change in circumstances occurring after the date hereof that would alter the opinions rendered herein.

Our opinions are limited to the matters set forth herein, and no opinion may be inferred or is implied beyond the matters expressly contained herein. We hereby consent to the filing of copies of this opinion letter as an exhibit to the Registration Statement in connection with the Amendment. In addition, we consent to Winston & Strawn LLP's reliance as to matters of Wisconsin law upon this opinion letter in connection with the rendering of its opinion of even date herewith concerning the Indenture, but only to the extent of the opinions specifically set forth herein. This opinion letter has been prepared solely for your use in connection with the transmitting for filing of the Amendment on or about the date hereof and may not be used or relied upon for any other purpose, or by any other person or entity, or filed with or disclosed to any third party, without our prior written consent.

Very truly yours,

/S/ GODFREY & KAHN, S.C.
